

Moving Europe towards a sustainable and safe railway system without frontiers.

Terms and Conditions

CCS TSI & ERTMS Open Days Workshop Prague 2026, 20-21 January 2026

1. Introduction

The CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026 in Prague is organised by the European Union Agency for Railways upon request of the EU railway stakeholders to provide technical content in the field of applicable Union legislation regarding ERTMS and CCS TSI application.

The legal base for this activity is Regulation \(EU\) 2016/796 and Decision n°387 of the Management Board of the European Union Agency for Railways adopting the ERA Multi-annual Communication and Dissemination Plan for 2026-2030.

By submitting your request for registering to the CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026 you automatically enter into an agreement with the European Union Agency for Railways which reflects your request to participate in the CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026 and receive technical content provided during this workshop. By submitting your request for participation to the CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026, you accept these terms and conditions.

Article 1 - Registration

Users should follow all the steps set forth on the TSI Open Days Technical Workshop in Prague, Czechia | European Union Agency for Railways event webpage.

In case of need, please contact the ERA Academy team: Academy@era.europa.eu

Article 2 - Fees

On site and online participation are free of charge.

The participant must cover his/her own travel and accommodation expenses. No refund will be made for any incurred expenditure/s.

Article 3 – Changes to the registration

If a participant is unable to attend the CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026 for any reason, he or she may ask to be replaced by someone else, by sending the full details of the replacing person to Academy@era.europa.eu.

Article 4 - Photos taken during the CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026

Participants that do not wish to have their photo taken have the possibility to object to this in the registration form. Objecting participants will sit in specific areas and will obtain a special badge. However, the objecting participants should know that if they intervene during the conference and the 'Questions & Answers' sessions/debates etc., their contributions shall be made available in the public domain. Consult the relevant Data Protection Notice for more detailed information.

Article 5 - Changes to the programme, place or timing

The Agency reserves the right to cancel or reschedule the CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026 before the planned start. In this case and other cases of force majeure¹, the Agency cannot be held liable for other adverse consequences resulting from the cancellation.

The mention of a speaker's name on the agenda does not commit the Agency. In case an advertised speaker does not participate in the CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026, the Agency will do its best efforts to find a replacement of the same reputation and expertise.

Article 6 - Travel visa

The European Union Agency for Railways bares no responsibility in relation to the compliance of participants with their legal requirements related to visa.

The CCS TSI & ERTMS Workshop 2026 organising team is available to provide an invitation letter upon request, following binding registration. You can submit your request to Academy@era.europa.eu.

Article 7– Final

These general terms and conditions shall be governed by the EU law supplemented as necessary by the laws of France. Only the Courts of Lille (France) are competent to settle any kind of dispute hereunder.

¹ Force majeure shall mean any unforeseeable and exceptional situation or event beyond the control of the Agency which was not due to an error or negligence of ERA, and which could not have been avoided by the exercise of due diligence.